Viewing Your Timecard

My Timecard displays your time data for all worked and non-worked hours. By default, your timecard is automatically populated with hours based on your assigned schedule.

The screenshot shows the 'My Timecard' interface. It features a grid of time data organized by date ranges (e.g., Sun 12/30 to Sat 1/05, Sun 1/06 to Sat 1/12). The interface includes a top navigation bar with 'Approve Timecard', 'Print Timecard', 'Refresh', 'Calculator', and 'Save' buttons. A 'Loaded 11:28 AM' status and a 'Current Pay Period' dropdown are also visible. The main data area is divided into sections for 'Pay Codes' and 'Exceptions'. Below the main grid, there are 'Totals', 'Accruals', 'Audits', and 'Historical Corrections' tabs. A 'Show or Hide More Content' button is located above the 'Accruals' section. The 'Accruals' section displays a table with columns for 'Accrual Code', 'Accrual Available Balance', and 'Accrual Taken to Date'.
