Sean Nash
Box Office Manager, ArtPower

How long have you been with UC San Diego and what does your current position entail?

I have been at UC San Diego now for a little over 3 years. I started in the box office as the Ticketing Coordinator and I am now proud to be taking on the role of Box Office Manager. I am responsible for managing all aspects of the box office, staff, and ticket sales.

Do you have any interesting hobbies or activities that you enjoy?

I love movies, music, and pop culture! I also have a passion for photography and travel.

What do you like to do on your days off?

On my days off, you will usually find me spending time with friends, going to movies and the theater, and quite often you will find me at Disneyland!

ArtPower

2018 kicks off with four performances at ArtPower. Start the year off right and join us for Sufi hip-hop from the French-Algerian dance troupe Compagnie Hervé Koubi on January 17. On January 19, the all-American Aeolus Quartet performs Haydn, Beethoven, and Philip Glass; soul, gospel, and R&B-inspired artist Liz Vice performs at The Loft on January 25; and French percussionist Roland Auzet performs his world premiere piece A bare hands, on a Smart car we're putting onto the Mandeville stage.

Student Life staff gets one pair of free tickets to any ArtPower performance*! Email Joanna at joanna@ucsd.edu to claim your tickets. *subject to ticket availability

Associated Students

With the end of 2017, AS wrapped up a marathon of Annual Reports. Over the course of Fall Quarter, ASGS collaborated with partners throughout campus to create five visually compelling Annual Reports. These reports include the 2016–17 Student Affairs, Intercollegiate Athletics, and SPACES Annual Reports. These documents are important summaries of the work these departments do throughout an academic year and are shared widely with stakeholders and supporters of UC San Diego.

SPACES also submitted their 2016–17 Annual Report to the Vice Chancellor of Student Affairs and University of California, Office of the President. Again, this is an important way for SPACES supporters to be made aware of the abundance of beautiful programming that occurs on an annual basis.

Student Life Business Office

SLBO is busy processing reimbursements, reconciling fall events, and enjoying the holiday activities. We are looking forward to the start of next quarter and all of the exciting events to come.

Center for Student Involvement

The Center for Student Involvement has been hard at work planning for some big events and changes next year! The Martin Luther King Jr. Day Parade and Day of Service is right around the corner—this UCSD campus tradition will be on Sunday, January 14. This is a great event for staff to bring their family out to! This event will be at Baker Elementary School (for the service) and along Harbor Drive (for the parade). Visit <http://mlkday.ucsd.edu> to register.

Next quarter we will kick off our new Dialogue Ambassador program—a team of undergraduate students will work with CSI and the National Conflict Resolution Center to hold 10 on-campus each quarter and 8 off-campus community-oriented dialogues a year. Congratulations Jenny Kressel, Frida Alvear and Katy Brecht who partnered with NCRC on the grant that makes this possible!

We will welcome our new Greek Life Advisor to IFC and MGC Sororities, Chloe Leal on January 16. Chloe is currently the Coordinator of Fraternity/Sorority Life at California State University, Fullerton.

With this new addition, we would like to give a shout out and many thanks to the outstanding work Christian Medero has done as the Interim Greek Advisor. We would also like to say thank you to Sonja Chen for her great work as Interim Office and Project Coordinator!

Student Legal Services

SLS will be busy with the Discover the Law program in January and throughout the Winter Quarter! Check out our website for the official calendar of events, and feel free to share with any students interested in learning about the law. Thank you!

University Centers

When we learned the Postal Center would be moving out of Price Center, our team quickly adapted to the challenge and reimagined the space. Set to open winter 2018, Y Más will be a new place to relax, eat, and chat with friends. Inspired by modern Mexican markets, visitors will enjoy the added seating, vibrant colors, art work, and food cart vendors selling treats and snacks.

University Events Office

We are kicking off the new year by gearing up for the Martin Luther King Jr. Parade and Day of Service and working on marketing efforts to bring awareness to this annual tradition. The University Events Office is also excited to unveil three new Triton Fest events that are debuting this quarter for our students. On January 19, UEO is teaming up with MASA to present the Asian Night Market on Library Walk featuring student organizations, food, and traditional performances. The following weekend, we are producing Rec After Hours (1/26) at RIMAC and Triton Dance Marathon (1/27) in the PC West Ballroom.
